Please remember, this ride is about enjoying the ride in a safe and sane group setting, and that this is a group with varying experience levels. Help out where you can, climbing is hard. Keep an eye on your stragglers.

Observe the rules of the road. Single file when advisable, no more than two abreast. Stop at stop signs and lights. Signal your turns and stops. Call out road hazards, and get to know the people riding with you.

See you on the roads.
