

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The City of Milton, Georgia is an incorporated City in Fulton County, Georgia, and is a City charged with delivering municipal services, and

WHEREAS, The Mayor and City Council have taken an aggressive stance on crime prevention and public safety by supporting Milton's Department of Public Safety and by supporting the concept of creating a Police Canine Team; and

WHEREAS, The use of canines in police work dates back to the 14th Century in St. Malo, France where canines were used to guard dock installations, and today over 7,000 canine teams exist around the United States; and

WHEREAS, Some of the many advantages of creating a canine team include public relations, narcotic searches, police officer safety and dedication to duty; and

WHEREAS, The City of Milton located DaSilva, a fully certified and amazingly credentialed police canine in Louisiana, and appointed Officer Brian Kiel as the handler for this inaugural canine team; and

WHEREAS, This Police Canine Team was made possible because of the benevolent contribution of Mr. Eddie Moore, who purchased DaSilva; and

WHEREAS, Because of Mr. Moore's contribution, the safety of the City of Milton, its citizens, its visitors and its police officers is greatly enhanced.

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton, hereby recognize Mr. Eddie More and offer our heartfelt gratitude for this amazing contribution to the City and to its citizens.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 10th day of January, 2008.

_____
Joe Lockwood, Mayor