National Girl Scout Cookie Day 2013

WHEREAS, National Girl Scout Cookie Day is a day designed to celebrate the Girl Scout Cookie Program and the five basic skills girls learn by participating in the program: goal setting, decision making, money management, people skills, and business ethics; and

WHEREAS, for more than 100 years, Girl Scouts has been engaged in girls' lives serving as a resource and expert on their growth and development; and

WHEREAS, through the Girl Scout Leadership Experience, girls in grades K-12 discover themselves and their values, connect with other girls, and take action to make the world a better place.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Milton, do hereby applaud the commitment Girl Scouting has made to support the leadership development of girls in the State of Georgia and proclaim February 8, 2013, as NATIONAL GIRL SCOUT COOKIE DAY as part of the Girl Scout Cookie Program.

Given under our hand and seal of the City of Milton, Georgia on this 20th day of February, 2013.
